Father- Week

The feelings shared by fathers and daughters this weekend are those of fun and cheer. A weekend of togetherness, strengthening the ties that so often lose their elasticity during the teen years. But here—who are the "teens" as we journey into the gay 90's?

Orphean's talent is unique. Emotion is expressed by the glint of an eye or smile on a face, but even more by the rise and fall of rhythm and sound that is music.

Secretarial Career Night

Sadness and joy! To win—the thrill of a successful effort; to lose—the satisfaction in having tried; to watch—envy of those who are more involved, and perhaps a sore throat after having cheered so loudly.

Day '67

Senior-Faculty Ball Game

Anticipation, Despair, FATIGUE! Sides unbalanced physically, but not in emotions. Competition sparks a similarity between students and faculty—an emotional similarity—both sides aim to win but despair at their shortcomings. Unfortunately, the seniors had far more shortcomings than the faculty.

Faculty 7 - Seniors 1

The blues will fight against the whites and only one can be a winner. But, contest on, the fun begins and battles end with smiles and grins.

Congratulations to the white team for the efforts that won them the 1967 AA plaque.

The origin of beauty is the heart, and every generous thought illumines the countenance and increases the depth of the beauty contained therein. For beauty is not of the body alone, but of the entire spirit.

Life is a map of divergent roads. Friends cannot always follow the same road, but in true friendship those paths will very likely cross again—somewhere in the future. Perhaps that crossroad will be a Lasell reunion, a business association, or a common undertaking for the good of humanity.

Dedication

With Gratitude

For the warmth of your friendship;

With Admiration

For your willingness to

"In the time of your life, live... so that in that good time there shall be no ugliness or death for yourself

or for any life your life touches.

*Seek goodness everywhere,
and when it is found,*

*bring it out of its hiding place and let it be free
and unashamed.*

*Place in matter and in flesh
the least of the values,
for these are the things that hold death and must pass away.*

Discover in all things that which shines and is beyond corruption.

*Encourage virtue in whatever heart
it may have been driven into secrecy and sorrow by the shame and terror of the world.*

*Ignore the obvious,
for it is unworthy
of the clear eye
and the kindly heart.*

*Be the inferior of no man,
nor of any man
be the superior.*

Remember that every man is a variation of yourself.

*No man's guilt is not yours, nor is any man's innocence
a thing apart.*

*Despise evil and ungodliness,
but not men of ungodliness or evil.
These, understand.*

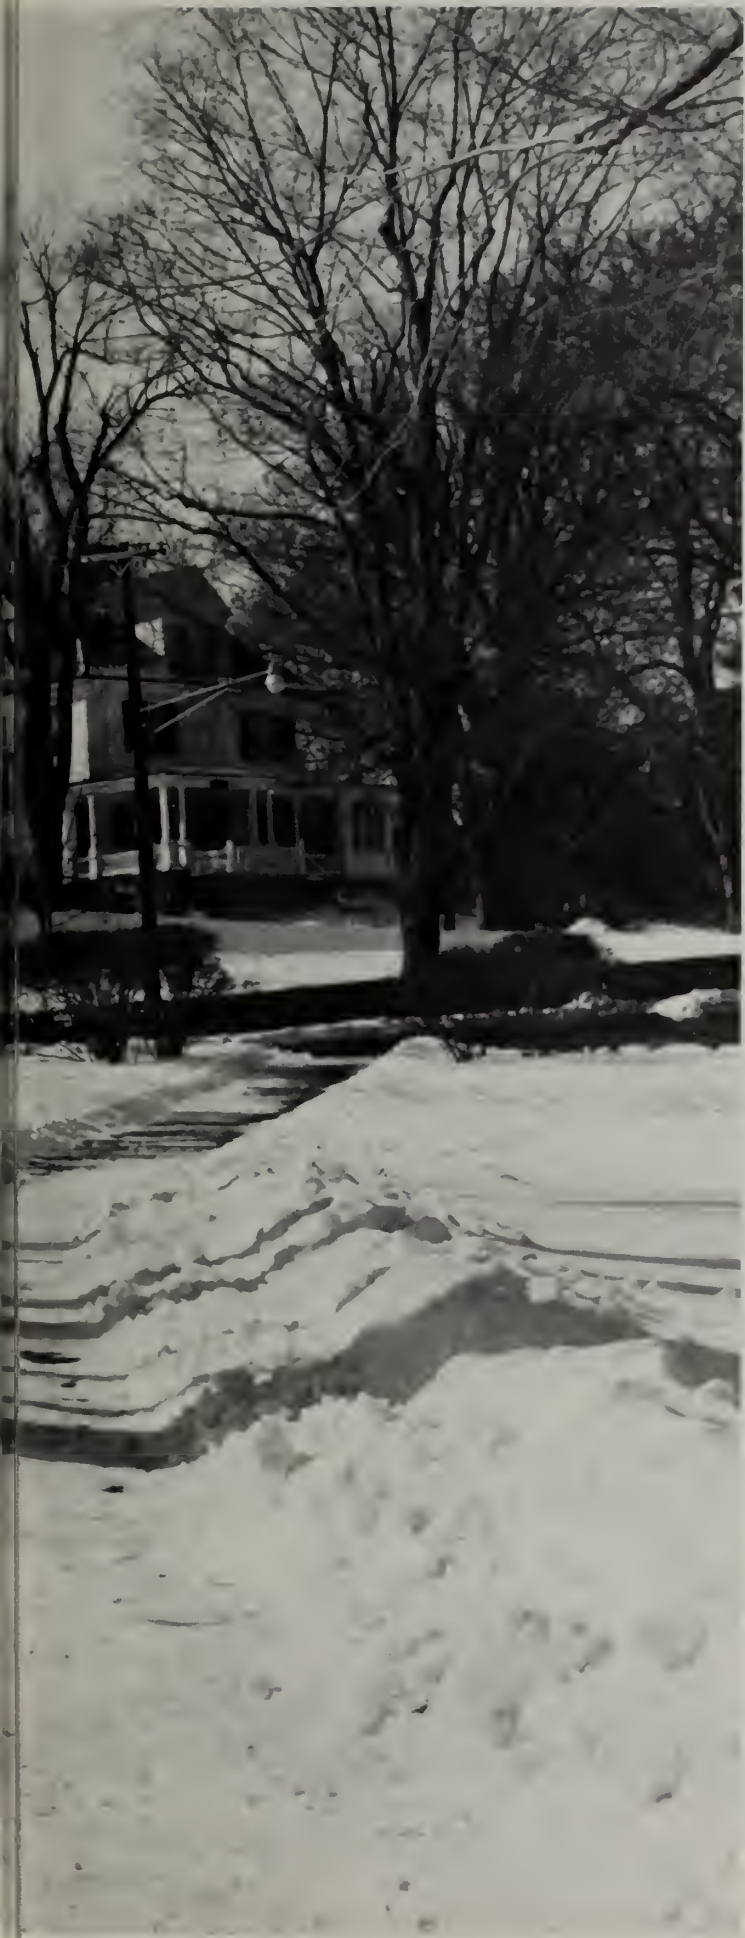

Have no shame in being kindly and gentle,

but if the time comes in the time of your life to kill, kill and have no regrets.

*In the time of your life, live . . .
so that in that wondrous time you shall not add to the misery
and sorrow of the world, but shall smile
to the infinite delight
and mystery of it."*

WILLIAM SAROYAN

Dr. Vincent C. DeBaun, President

President's Message

Life! I wish there could be a college course in living. For I believe that most of us, unless we possess some immense Aristophanic-Rabelaisian-Wolfean instinct, do not live anywhere near the full dimension of the strength or love within our bodies and spirits.

Perhaps modern existence militates against depth of experience: pre-packaged, flash-frozen, taste-tested, government-approved. The generation of youth knows this—probably has always known it, ever since civilization began to take with one hand while it gave with the other—and so revolt flows naturally (gloriously!) in young blood.

It is a revolt that affirms life and denies death, and it is therefore essentially good, even when it is wild, and especially when it exasperates elders who have learned to croon over their pennies, keep the curtains drawn, and fear the twitching nostrils of Mr. and Mrs. Big.

Can two years at Lasell strengthen your grip on life, plant your foot more firmly on the seductions of fakery and greed? (Note all the ads where "luxury" is the key word, where unlimited sex and fame apparently come only to those who smoke the right brand, use the right deodorant, drive the right wheels.)

I hope so. I should like to make it so—with your help, now and in your years as alumnae. For living—really living—is sometimes desperately hard, and we all need all the help we can get.

VINCENT C. DEBAUN
President

June L. Babcock, Dean

Dean's Message

The important thing to remember is that the time of your life is now. Not last year when you were a homesick freshman. Not even next year when you'll be starting a new job or transferring to a new college. Now. One of the clichés to which commencement speakers are prone is that college is preparation for life. They are wrong: college IS life. What you do today at Lasell—your kind word to a discouraged roommate, your superhuman effort to get a good grade in Philosophy, your enthusiastic support of the Executive Council—is forevermore and irrevocably a part of you. Therefore, make every moment count. The time of your life is now.

JUNE BABCOCK
Dean of Students

To The Administration and Faculty:

The most important things to be learned in school are often the least obvious—not the intricate equations of chemistry and mathematics, the names and dates of history, or the grammatical rules of English, but rather the more subtle, sometimes intangible, social and intellectual disciplines. These cannot be learned from textbooks and teaching machines, but only from the sort of dedicated, inspired teachers that characterize the Lasell faculty. We have been taught to question what we are told, not to accept it blindly—to think, not to vegetate—to be creative, not repetitive.

We have been taught that understanding, rather than a high average, is the real goal of education. If the first is achieved, the second will follow; but without understanding, grades are meaningless.

Such an academic environment as has been created by our teachers and administrators is not unique in American colleges, but it is certainly extraordinary. Lasell students have been prepared to think independently, to inquire, to seek understanding. We are well on our way, socially and intellectually, to becoming mature individuals.

For this we owe the members of our administration and faculty our heartfelt thanks and gratitude.

Standing: K. Jones, Treasurer; B. Anderson, Secretary.

Executive Council

The Executive Council of the College Government Association is the governing body and a vital part of Lasell. Each girl elected to the Council has been chosen by the student body and assumes a great honor and responsibility. In taking the Oath of Office, she is expected to uphold not only her own standards, but also those of the college.

Some of the projects for which the Executive Council is responsible throughout the year include: Fall Weekend, Blue Feather Drive, Christmas Banquet and Candle Lighting Service, Father-Daughter Weekend, and, to conclude the year, the May Cotillion.

Seated: E. Margolis, P. Victor, R. Yakovonis, C. Shapiro, S. Swienckowski, B. Anderson, P. Bunting, A. Glazier, L. Gaynes. Second Row: K. Morgan, S. Flagg, S. Hurwitz, S. Flathers, C. Brewster, A. Winslow, M. Smith, N. Chipman, J. Feinberg, S. Davis, K. Forbes. Third Row: J. Sala, B. Palmer, G. VanTassel, J. Preston, M. Kirkwood, B. Kamerdiner, J. Finberg, P. Maddock, W. Foster.

Senior Class Officers

Seated: B. Stern, S. Flathers, S. Chavez. Standing: K. King, J. Angelilli, J. Miller, P. Thatcher.

Athletic Association

The Lasell Athletic Association encompasses the entire student body. Each girl belongs to either the Blue or the White team, and there is much rivalry between the two in competing in various sports throughout the year. The goal is the winning of the A.A. shield at the end of the year.

The traditional "stealing" of the A.A. banner in the fall provides friendly intra-house competition to start off the year. The Athletic Association also sponsors a college mixer in the fall and the annual snow-sculpturing contest where there is adequate snow available.

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION OFFICERS

Seated: P. Vietor, M. Kirkwood. Standing: J. Sala, G. Gates, L. Hill.

Blue Key

Seated: P. Bunting, M. Glaback, K. Forbes, A. Glazier, O. Cabrer, J. Kepner, O. DeJesus, E. Romano, B. Anderson. Second row: J. Lazarz, K. Morgan, J. Hopkins, D. Garrow, L. Smith, S. Sheppard, B. Webb, J. Shea, C. Hammond, N. Goodall, F. White. Third row: L. Imberman, P. Victor, L. Hill, S. Lillywhite, M. Freiberg, S. Martin, M. Root, J. Reynolds, C. Owens.

Blue Key is a group of seniors selected each year by students and administration as representative of the ideals and standards of Lasell.

Blue Key members serve as hostesses during the freshman orientation period and as ushers on various occasions throughout the year, such as the Inauguration of Dr. Vincent DeBaun this fall.

One of the main functions of Blue Key is to guide prospective Lasell students and their families around the campus, answering any questions that they might have.

Seated: S. Davis, R. Yakovonis, A. Williams, M. L. Robbins, S. Herwitz, P. Fenhagan, N. Dotterer, S. Swienckowski, B. Lord, K. Corlett, G. Gates. Second row: K. MacDonald, J. Sala, V. Tenny, J. Standing: H. Taylor, J. Lararz, F. White. Seated: B. Moran, M. Friberg, S. Maxwell.

The Quill

The Quill, Lasell's literary magazine, is a tri-annual publication. The Quill offers a variety of reading: short stories, poetry, criticisms, editorials, and letters to the editor.

All articles are written and edited by interested students under the guidance of Mr. Lane, the advisor.

While maintaining high literary standards, the magazine aims to be of current interest and offers an opportunity to read literary creations and student opinions.

The Lasell News

The Lasell News, the school newspaper, is published monthly by a group of interested girls under the direction of Miss Judith Burke, the advisor.

The News is the medium for keeping students and faculty informed about past, present, and future happenings around the campus. Its Editorial and Letters to the Editor columns are a printed sounding board and for students to voice their opinions. The faculty column better acquaints the student body with faculty members and with their ideas on various issues.

LAMP EDITORS AND ADVISOR
D. Garrow, B. Webb and Mr. Sebastian F. Mignosa.

LAMP ART AND LAYOUT EDITORS
J. Segaloff, B. Bunce.

The recording of the students' Lasell experience is the undertaking of The Lamp staff, under the guidance of Mr. Sebastian Mignosa. Arranging picture sittings, deciding format, doing art work, writing copy, doing layout—all done against the time element of the DEADLINE—is the core of the staff's task.

Although hard work and pressure are predominant factors during the year, the staff finds a great deal of satisfaction—and relief—when spring arrives and The Lamp becomes a permanent reality, a product of joint effort for the Class of 1967.

Workshop Players

Workshop Players is the group for the girls who believe "the play's the thing." The members of the Workshop Players receive much enjoyment from the work put forth in making scenery, costuming, and directing as well as from the actual performance of the two annual plays. All phases are carried out under the supervision of Mr. James Haney.

The fall play, "Taming of the Shrew," was successfully staged cabaret-style, the audience being seated at tables around the performing area. The Italian pastries and coffee served added to the Neapolitan atmosphere. The spring play was "The Three Penny Opera."

Seated: C. Silvers, S. Lillywhite, J. Sala—President, M. Robins, B. O'Bryon, E. Romano. Second row: C. Blair, J. Ford, V. Tenney, B. Kamerdiner, J. Larzarz, K. McDonough, L. Barber. Third row: J. Angelilli, G. Finger, P. Fales, D. Olson, M. Harberson, S. Shane.

Seated: G. Sloane, C. Silvers, D. LaPalme, S. Flagg, R. Wilson, D. Ellis, N. Citron, K. Richter.
Second row: P. Summers, D. Stone, L. Houser, A. Temp, H. Hines, J. Peters, O. Hammond, K. Larkin, D. Reid, L. Robbins, A. Gutman. Third row: L. Leighton, R. Munce, P. Rosen, L. Wessman, J. Richards, G. Gates, C. Kinney, J. Schaubert, B. Pace, A. Winslow, K. Dougherty.

Nurses' Organization

The nursing students of Lasell find unity among themselves and communication with other nursing schools in their Nurses' Organization membership, which also includes membership in the State and National Student Nurses' Association.

One of the main projects for the Senior nurses of the Organization is the annually successful Christmas Bazaar. This year the girls put their time, imaginations, and talent into a country-store theme.

Orphean Club

James Remley, Director

Frank Taylor, Accompanist

Mrs. Ruth Kneisel

Orphean, the Lasell glee club, is composed of girls selected by tryout in the fall of each year. Under the direction of Mr. James Remley, the group sings music varying from classical and religious to popular and folk tunes.

Much work is put into preparation for the various concerts held throughout the year at churches, other colleges, and here, at Lasell. The highlight of the club's activities is the annual spring "Pops" concert at Boston's Symphony Hall with the Boston Symphony Orchestra.

The Lasell Orphean member acquired a new distinctive look this year. She now appears at all concerts, with the exception of "Pops" when the dress is semi-formal, in a smart navy shell and skirt worn with a white blazer bearing the club's emblem.

Lasell Community Club

Seated: K. McDonough, J. Shea, J. Kepner, C. DeVito. Standing: S. Lillywhite, D. Olsen, S. Hanner, S. Wilson

The Lasell Community Club is an organization designed for volunteer service throughout the community and Lasell campus.

As in previous years, the club instituted programs with the Newton Community Center, the Newton-Wellesley Hospital, and The Brae Burn Nursing Home. On-campus activities included the Thanksgiving Chapel, which provided quantities of food for the Morgan Memorial, cookie making for the Veteran's Hospital, and the successful sale of donuts during mid-year exams.

The highlight of the year was the induction of a new program in conjunction with MIT and the Cambridge House, which provided Lasell girls with the opportunity of tutoring a child two hours a week. All these projects were undertaken with the invaluable help of Mrs. Theodora Tower, club advisor.

Seated: C. Dorfman, C. Silvers, J. Lazarz, M. Glabach, P. Lee, J. Cohen, J. Rosenstock. Second row: S. Maxwell, S. Lillywhite, L. Barber, J. Ford, S. Posner, B. Safron, K. McDonough, C. Blair, E. Romano, M. Haber. Third row: S. Knoph, S. Flathers, J. Angelilli, G. Finger, A. Sterner, B. McGregor, B. Stern, S. Swienckowski, J. Sala.

Current Events Club

The purpose of the Current Events Club is to establish in interested students a better understanding of contemporary world problems. Often this is done with the help of co-operative faculty members or guest speakers.

The club's activities include off-campus lectures and group discussions in which the students voice their opinions and learn the background of national and world happenings.

F r e n c h C l u b

Seated: C. Blair, K. McDonough, K. Corlette, Mrs. Poorvu, S. Martin—President, S. Sheppard.
Standing: J. Ford, B. Sofaron, M. Harberson, B. McGregor, B. Stern, J. Sala, E. Mossberg.

The French Club, composed of all the French students at Lasell, extends beyond the limit of the classroom aspect of the language. It enables its members to learn much of French culture as well.

Activities of the year included seeing French travel films, the presentation of a medieval nativity play at Christmastime, going to dinner at Boston's French restaurant, "Les Tuileries," a visit to the Fine Arts Museum, and viewing of the film, "The Marriage of Figaro."

Members of the club find that by seeing, tasting, and experiencing these parts of French life, they are better able to understand and enjoy their study of the language.

S p a n i s h C l u b

The Spanish Club at Lasell is for the students taking a Spanish course who wish to learn more of the culture of the Spanish-speaking peoples than the classroom experience permits.

The club's activities this year, with the direction of Senora Cobb, the advisor, have included the viewing of the movie, "Lazarillo do Tormes," and the annual Christmas party, complete with a piñata.

Seated: S. Posner, K. Dodd, M. Haber, M. Bradshaw. Standing: E. Romano, B. Balboni, S. Martin, L. Ferish, C. Chirgotis.

Science Club

Lasell's Science Club is open to all students taking any course in science. Regular meetings are held each month and are supplemented by numerous movies throughout the year.

Since science is such a broad field, the club tries to include diverse topics for presentation which would be of interest to most science students. This year the program has included such items as psychiatry, child birth, abortion, geology, astronomy, conservation, and others. Although geared mainly for the student of science, anyone with an interest in the area is welcomed and encouraged to attend.

It is hoped that through membership in this organization topics discussed in the classrooms may be brought to a close and more meaningful level for students by visitors who specialize in their particular fields of science.

Seated: C. Shapiro, Mrs. Lindquist, L. Smith, P. Grobie. Second row: M. Haber, J. Rosenstock, E. Romano, J. Cohen. Third row: H. Rose, P. Bremer, E. Burgess, S. Sheppard, C. Dorfman.

Front row: J. Hopkins, H. Rose, L. Kanter, B. Walker. Second row: C. Dorfman, C. Hammond. Top row: B. Balboni,—President.

Modern Dance Club

Exercising, working out themes, and practicing, fills the spare time of all members of the Modern Dance Club. Anyone taking Modern Dance is eligible to try out for membership in the club which is under the professional direction of Mrs. Jeanne Cousins.

One of the first projects of this year was a dance interpretation of "Peter Pan" for the benefit of the Lasell nursery school children. Other performances included Father-Daughter Weekend and the main effort of the year, the annual spring recital.

Retailing Club

The two-fold objective of the Retailing Club is to give its members a chance to gain experience outside the classroom and to share ideas with individuals who have common vocational interests.

The activities are planned so that retailers have a chance to see and experience the various fields that come under the heading of "retailing." The largest project of the year was the fall fashion show. In this effort, the members had an opportunity to use their retailing knowledge and creative ideas in the presentation of the latest fashions.

The club has been helped and guided in its work this year by Dr. Charles Barry, Chairman of the Retailing Department.

Seated: C. Ferrari, J. Knutsen, P. Lee, B. O'Bryon, S. English, S. Knopf. Standing: S. McCord, B. Edwards, S. Swienkowski, J. Preston, S. Merrick, B. Kamerdiner.

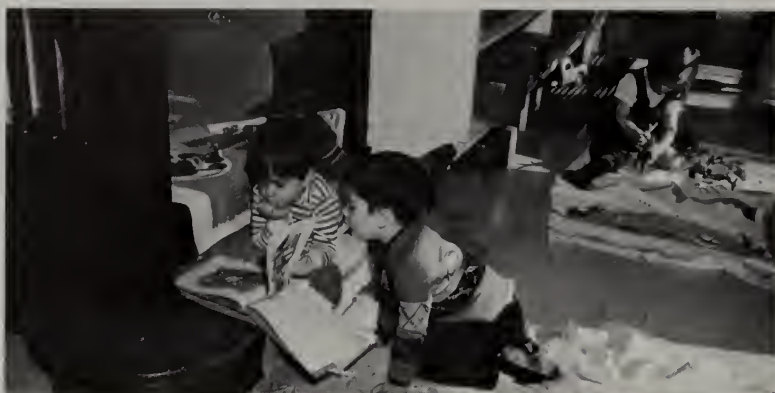

Student-Faculty Meetings

Several times during this year meetings have been held at the Dean's house in an attempt to bring students and faculty closer together. Discussions were open to any topic and to anyone with something to say. Faculty honestly answered questions and in turn, sought the answers to such questions as "What kind of things bother Lasell students?" "Do you think the communication barrier between students and faculty arise naturally out of age differences or is there another reason?"

Each meeting provided a challenge to alert students and an opportunity to learn more about faculty members as interested people rather than just a figure behind a podium.

Inauguration

"No: I would not hope for an education which would teach young women to reconcile themselves to the world. Rather, I would hope for an education which would inspire them to change the world, to labor toward values worth fighting for, and therefore worth living for."

"I believe deeply that this generation of students, despite the greenness of their years, is ready to labor for a life fit for the sons and daughters of God, not merely for themselves, but for their brethren everywhere."

"Truly I believe that if all of us who know and love Lasell—trustees, faculty, administration, alumnae, parents—and students, most of all—work toward some such vision, then our graduates will take from us the gift of abundant joy. In this fearful century of change, where the hooves of the Four Horsemen are still a ghostly thunder at the edge of darkness, may each of our young women say, in paraphrase of Wordsworth: 'Bliss, is it in this dawn to be alive; and oh! to be young is very heaven.'"

Perhaps a man's own words are better able to characterize him than most biographical paragraphs.

For Lasell students this year, Dr. DeBaun's words have been truly a reflection of his thoughts—taking aim where action is needed, and understanding where questions arise; igniting spirit with the warmth of a smile; and voicing puzzlement with his eyes. His words will not be ignored, for they edge their way under one's skin and irritate until being well considered.

This is the gift of a man, seeking the essence of a college and its individual components.
